

CURRICULUM VITAE

LOST KIN RESEARCH'S PRINCIPAL RESEARCHER, BRUCE GARNER

- 1960s - Frimley School
- 1970s - Karamu High School
- 1981 - Consul Operator (Caltex)
- 1982 - Ministry of Transport
- 1982 - Wellington City Council
- 1984 - Garner's Video Ltd Managing Director (Six years)
- 1988 - Video Retailer of the Year Runner Up
- 1989 - Attended the Consumer Electronics Show, Chicago
- 1991 - Migrated to Melbourne
- 1996 - Became an Australian citizen
- 1995 - Small Business Development course completed
- 1997 - Consul Operator & Site Manager BP (3 yrs)
- 2004 - Licenced Security Officer (3 years)
- 2006 - Returned to New Zealand

Genealogy & Private Investigations

- 1986 - Established Ancestral Services NZ Family Historian
- 1993 - Established NZ Family History Services
- 1996 - Garners Genealogy Principal Researcher (15 years)
- 1997 - Australasian Association of Record Agents (Joined)
- 1998 - Australasian Association of Record Agents (Committee Member (2 yrs))
- 1998 - Association of Professional Genealogists (Joined)
- 1998 - Australian Institute and Genealogical Studies Guest Speaker on New Zealand Research
- 1999 - Australasian Association of Record Agents (Newsletter editor)
- 1999 - Tasmanian Family & Local History Fair Guest Speaker on British Isles Directories
- 2000 - Member of the Census Working Party (Australia) (6 yrs)
- 2000 - Published and wrote a guide Parish Registers in New Zealand
- 2006 - Published and wrote a book My Name is Pearse
- 2006 - Brighton Historical Society Guest Speaker Internet Genealogy
- 2009 - Licenced Private Investigator
- 2011 - Lost Kin Research Principal Researcher